Dear Friends

Heraclitus: modern technology is marvellous I misspelled the name and the spell checker corrected it! Heraclitus may sound like something you should see the doctor about but in fact he was a philosopher living in Ephesus around 560 BC. Son of a noble family he was by all accounts a miserable individual: he hated people and was happy to spend his time alone brooding over deep mysteries. Having pondered deeply he would explain his thoughts and conclusions in such a ponderous and incomprehensible manner no one knew what he was talking about: he was called "The Obscure".

One statement for which he is credited is: "A man cannot step into the same river twice". He argued that after stepping out of the river it flowed on and what a person stepped back into was not the same river: it had changed. He used this as an illustration of the world being in a constant state of flux, everything changing all of the time and asked: "If that is so, why is life not a complete chaos?"

Through his observations Heraclitus concluded there was order and reason in creation. He went further and asked why do people have an understanding of right and wrong? From these observations and questions he determined that something was involved in the universe and creation which gave order, logic, reason and an ethic: the word he used to summarise this was 'Logos'.

Writing in Ephesus several hundred years later the apostle John took that same understanding and applied it to the one about whom he was writing: 'In the beginning was the word (Logos)'. John states that the Logos which gives reason and understanding to the universe is God, God revealed through Jesus Christ.

Today, with the aid of modern technology, scientists, physicists and philosophers have an incomprehensibly greater understanding of the universe, world and the sophistication of life and conclude there is no God: no creator behind what they see. I read recently, can't find where: "When a scientist states categorically 'There is no God,' he ceases to be a scientist and becomes a propagandist".

Many who speak confidently of being atheist are expressing a set of beliefs which they need to explain and justify if they are to have integrity but very few try to, relying instead on a vehement attack against religion based on caricatures and ridicule. In the face of this too many Christians wilt into the shadows and stay silent.

Our response should be a quiet presentation of our faith without rancour or abuse in the certainty that when we step out in his name the God we worship and adore is working even when we feel inadequate. Never be afraid to admit we don't have all the answers. We know what God thinks of the unbeliever because he tells us several times in scripture, ie Psalm 14:1. Each one of us should determine to share our faith with others and not be discouraged by the response we receive because there are many people hungry for something to give their life meaning and no one is telling them who it is.

Church Family News

We hope everyone has had a joyous Christmas and wish that 2012 will be a year filled with God's rich blessings.

Firstly congratulations to Margaret Carleton on the birth of her grandson, Zac, born to Mel and Alexander on Christmas Day. Congratulations also to Olva Clayton and May Evans on their special birthdays.

Since our last newsletter Lillian Barton has moved from Connell Court to Ashcroft House, Formby.

Brenda Horton is still receiving treatment and wishes to thank everyone for their prayers , visits and telephone calls.

A few of our members have not been too well recently and we hope they will be soon back to good health and worshipping with us again.

Our thoughts and prayers are with our friends who are in residential care or at home and unable to come to Church.

Food Bank

Thank you for your wonderful kindness in providing food for needy families at Christmas - I have been told that the families were extremely grateful, some moved to tears by your kindness having been so worried about how they would have managed. I received a Christmas card from one family in Seaforth who we have been helping for several years and which I would like to share with you:-

"Dear all

Thank you for all the help you have given me over the years. Without the help I don't know where I would have been. So once again Thank you.

Ps Thank you Phil Happy Xmas to all from Bernadette and family xxx"

Bernadette is a grandmother, not in the best of health at the moment, and she is looking after 4 grandchildren and one great granddaughter. This child and her mother will have moved out late January to a flat nearby which should make life a little easier for Bernadette. I have been able to supply them with a few items for the flat which is unfurnished but any unwanted items you may have could be helpful to this young mum.

Whilst it is upsetting to see the hardship some of these our neighbours are experiencing it is also nice to see their joy when they receive your gifts. I thank God for his blessings and for your kindness.

Sefton Childrens Trust

A friend and neighbour of ours has offered to support our trust by doing a sponsored run in the Blackpool Marathon in March. Please would you consider sponsoring him and thus help us raise the money for this year's holiday. Anything would be gratefully received.

Thanks. Phil Morgan

Safeguarding

Lin and I are the safeguarding officers for our Church having been nominated and approved by Church Council. This is quite a demanding role as the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults is of paramount importance in the life of our Church. It is a legal requirement that we have in place procedures, both vetting and investigative, to ensure our premises are as safe as could possibly be. We have a safeguarding policy and a policy statement that have been approved by Church Council. There is also a booklet entitled 'A Code of Practice and Guidelines for Safeguarding Children, Young People and Vulnerable Adults', copies of which are displayed in every room in the Church and Family Centre.

The Policy, the Statement and the Guidelines can also be found on the Church website which can be accessed on www.FormbyMethodistChurch.org.uk

All these documents are available to read in paper form, just ask .

Should you have any concerns please contact us in the first instance. If we are unavailable please contact our Minister John Ritson.

To the members of Formby Methodist Church,

Many thanks for the donations of toys, sweets and money we received just before Christmas. One of our favourite tasks is making up toy parcels for 'our' families, and it is so much easier when there is a good selection to choose from. We were able to deliver Christmas Hampers and bags of gifts to the families, and they were very well-received.

We couldn't do what we do without the generosity of people like yourselves, so, on behalf of all at Sefton Children's Trust.

THANK YOU!

A Christian!

Several years ago, a preacher from out-of-state accepted a call to a church in Houston, Texas . Some weeks after he arrived, he had an occasion to ride the bus from his home to the downtown area. When he sat down, he discovered that the driver had accidentally given him a quarter too much change. As he considered what to do, he thought to himself, 'You'd better give the quarter back. It would be wrong to keep it.' Then he thought, 'Oh, forget it, it's only a quarter. Who would worry about this little amount? Anyway, the bus company gets too much fare; they will never miss it. Accept it as a 'gift from God' and keep quiet.'

When his stop came, he paused momentarily at the door, and then he handed the quarter to the driver and said, 'Here, you gave me too much change'. The driver, with a smile, replied, 'Aren't you the new preacher in town?' 'Yes' he replied. 'Well, I have been thinking a lot lately about going somewhere to worship. I just wanted to see what you would do if I gave you too much change. I'll see you at church on Sunday.'

When the preacher stepped off of the bus, he literally grabbed the nearest light pole, held on, and said, 'Oh God, I almost sold your Son for a quarter.'

Our lives are the only Bible some people will ever read. This is a really scary example of how much people watch us as Christians, and will put us to the test! Always be on guard - and remember - you carry the name of Christ on your shoulders when you call yourself 'Christian'.

Watch your thoughts ; they become words.

Watch your words; they become actions.

Watch your actions; they become habits.

Watch your habits; they become character.

Watch your character; it becomes your destiny.

David Shanks - Genetik Course

In the last Newsletter, David Shanks wrote about the youth work training that he is currently undertaking with The Message Trust. In order for David to complete the course, he needs to provide his own funding for the year, as well as all living expenses. As a church family, we would like to offer David some financial support for the remainder of his training. If you would like to help in this way, Sue Ensor is receiving donations to forward on to David. Alternatively, speak to Sue, or one of the Stewards, about pledging a regular amount over the next 6 months.

2nd Cross Green Rainbow Unit

I would like to thank Jenny (Pickering) Clarke for the 12 years of service she has given the Rainbow Unit held at the Methodist Church. When Margaret Jordan left Jenny took over the running of the Unit despite being in her final year at University and planning a wedding! Now other commitments mean that Jenny is no longer able to help at the Unit. Thank you, Jenny, very much for all the hard work and help you have given to Girlguiding UK.

Further to our appeals for help we have recruited two new leaders, Ann Swain and Siobhan Mulrooney, and under the guidance of Susan Howden the Unit now is in good shape with a full complement of 18 Rainbows.

There is, however, a large waiting list soooooo if there is anyone out there who would like to run/help to run a Rainbow Unit please contact me, Susan Howden or Margaret Carleton.

The Station

Tucked away in our subconscious is an idyllic vision. We see ourselves on a long trip that spans the country. We are travelling by train. Out of the windows we drink in the passing scenes of cars on nearby highways, of children waving at a crossing, of cattle grazing on a distant hillside, of smoke pouring from a power plant, of row upon row of corn and wheat, of flatlands and valleys, of mountains and rolling hillsides, of city skylines and village halls.

But uppermost in our minds is the final destination. On a certain day at a certain hour we will pull into the station. Bands will be playing and flags waving. Once we get there so many wonderful dreams will come true and pieces of our lives will fit together like a completed jigsaw puzzle.

How restlessly we pace the aisles, damning the minutes for loitering - waiting, waiting, waiting for the station.

When we reach the station "that will be it!" we cry. "When I'm 18", "when I buy a new car", "when I put my last child through high school", "when I have paid off the mortgage", "when I get a promotion", "when I reach the age of retirement, I will live happily ever after".

But sooner or later we must realise that there is no station in life, no one place to arrive at once and for all. The true joy of life is the trip. The station is only a dream. It constantly out distances us. It isn't the burdens of life that drive us mad. It is the regrets over yesterday and the fear of tomorrow. Regret and fear are the two thieves who rob us of today.

So, stop pacing the aisles and counting the miles. Instead, climb more mountains, swim more rivers, go barefoot more often, watch the sunsets, eat more ice cream, laugh more and cry less.

Life must be lived as we go along. The station will be here soon enough.

End of an Era submitted by Wendy Lunt

It was with great sadness that I heard the news of the closure this coming March of the Pre School Nursery at Elbow Lane. I cannot remember in the last thirty years when there was not a Nursery on the Church premises.

Unfortunately due to a combination of problems, in particular in the last year, that of the new Government grant allowance, the necessity for three members of staff at all times because of the building layout and the lack of support so that maximum numbers were enrolled, it has become financially unviable to cover all the running costs.

This is a tragedy for the loyal parents with children already attending the Nursery, who now face disruption in mid year; for the staff who are facing redundancy; and the Church which has always seen the Nursery as playing a vital role in the Community making sure that rent for the premises was kept as low as possible.

We hope and pray that everyone involved, both child and adult, will find suitable placement without too much worry.
